Kawasaki Refinery Participates in Tonomachi-Yako Sidewalk Cleanup

The TonenGeneral Sekiyu K.K. (head office: Minato-ku, Tokyo; representative: Jun Mutoh) Kawasaki refinery (Kawasaki-ku, Kawasaki City, Kanagawa; manager: Fumito Fujii) participated in the Kawasaki City Tonomachi-Yako Sidewalk Cleanup, held on May 24, as part of its social contribution activities.

The Kawasaki City Environment Bureau, the Coastal Area International Strategy Division, and 19 local companies participated in the activity, mainly picking up litter from sidewalks in front local businesses and separating it into trash bags, and cleaning up the roadsides and park near the Keikyu Kojima Shinden Station, areas that many commuters pass through every day on their way to and from work.

The Kawasaki refinery will continue to engage in these types of activities in order to make further contributions to the local community.
