TonenGeneral Group Participates in 26th YMCA Charity Run

The TonenGeneral Group (herein referred to as “the Group”) participated as one of the main sponsors in the 26th Tokyo YMCA International Charity Run, held on September 22 at Kiba Park, located in Tokyo’s Koto Ward.

The Tokyo YMCA International Charity Run is a YMCA program that supports challenged children’s participation in society. In accordance with this objective, the Group has, since the formation of the ExxonMobil Japan Group (1999), provided sponsorship for this event for over 10 years.

In this year’s Charity Run, teams of six runners each, including at least one female runner, competed in a relay race on a 1.3km course in Kiba Park. Rankings were determined by the total running time of each team. Eighty-three teams representing companies and organizations from various sectors competed in the event. Twenty-one teams from the TonenGeneral Group entered the race, and the addition of family members and colleagues who came to cheer the runners on brought the total number of Group participants to about 150.

As a good corporate citizen, the TonenGeneral Group believes that contributing to society is an important corporate responsibility. In accordance with this principle, the ExxonMobil Japan Group provides sponsorship for the YMCA International Charity Run as one of its social contribution activities.
